Kevin: I can't believe she just sent me this selfie! That is definitely crossing the line.

Kevin: Chloe, listen. I'm really flattered by all the attention, but I'd prefer to keep our relationship strictly professional. That selfie you sent last night was inappropriate and crossed the line for me. Also, please don't send our co-workers pictures of me on our group chats, and I'm removing you as a follower on my Instagram.

Chloe: Sure...I can try. If you can stop being so cute.

Kevin: Chloe, I mean it. I get that you're trying to be funny, but this job is really important to me, and I need to focus on my work.

Chloe: I get it. Your job is important. But you don't need to play it so cool with me.
